ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

"GAME ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Administrator in Council has been pleased to order that under the provisions of section 68 of the "Game Act," chapter 28 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1935, the following Game Regulations be made for the year 1937-38:—

BIG GAME AND TRAPPING REGULATIONS, 1937-38.

1. The prohibitions declared by section 18 of the "Game Act," being chapter 28 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1935, as to the hunting, trapping, taking, wounding, and killing of game are, subject to the provisions of Regulations 3 and 4, hereby removed to the extent and within the period and limits and subject to the provisions hereinafter set out respectively, as follows:—

For the purpose of defining the open seasons for big game and the trapping of fur-bearing animals, the Province shall be divided into two districts, to be known as the Western and Eastern Districts:—

"Western District" shall mean and include all that portion of the Province situate and lying to the west of the summit of the Cascade Mountains and south of the Electoral District of Atlin, except that portion of the Electoral District of Skeena covered by the watershed of the Lakelse and Zymagotitz Rivers.

"Eastern District" shall mean and include all of the remainder of the Province.

EASTERN DISTRICT (OPEN SEASONS).

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-myl W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on business as loggers, lumbermen, timber and lumber merchants, sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors and operators in all or any of their branches, and to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manipulate, manufacture, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, shingle-bolts, lumber, wood, and forest products of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in any by-product of wood or of the forest, and in articles and products of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used or forms any part, and to buy, clear, plant, and work timber estates:

(b.) To construct, equip, work, maintain, improve, and operate logging-railways, tramways, light railways, and logging-truck roads, and to construct branches or sidings, bridges, warehouses, roundhouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(c.) To carry on business as ship-owners and carriers by land or water, wharfingers, warehousemen, general merchants, store and hotel keepers, coal and fuel merchants, and any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(d.) To obtain options over, and take or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and to construct, alter, operate, control, manage, and deal in and with:—

(1.) Mills, mill machinery and plant, machine-shops, factories, works, donkey-engines, and other plant, machinery, and mechanical appliances operated by steam, electricity, or other motive power; logging camps, logging machinery and appliances and equipment of every description for the logging, cutting, transportation, handling, manufacturing, and finishing of logs, lumber, shingles, and other forest produce, and of any manufacturing of wood or of pulp-wood or paper, or of wood and any other materials severally or in combination, and of all products or by-products of wood or other forest produce or other materials whatsoever:

(2.) Logging-locomotives, cars, trucks, and rolling-stock of every description:

(3.) Warehouses, stores, shops, sheds, yards, offices, hotels, boarding-houses, restaurants, workmen's houses, dwellings, camps, and structures of every description:

(4.) Tugs, boats, barges, scows, ships, steamers, and other vessels of every description for towing, freighting, lightering, and the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and any shares in any such vessels, and wharves, docks, piers, slips, and works for the improvement of navigation or the more convenient or economical handling of the Company's traffic, merchandise, or business, also structures, appliances, and equipment for the handling of traffic and merchandise in any form:

(5.) Works, shops, and plant for building, fitting, and repairing ships and vessels of every description, and general engineering and machinery works and plant:

(6.) Reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, flumes, drains, timber and log chutes, coal and gravel bunkers, bridges, roadways, tramways, logging-railways, telegraph and telephone lines, and all other works, appliances, and equipment incidental to the foregoing:

(7.) Power-houses, plant, machinery, equipment, and works for the generation, distribution, and utilization of any form of power, and for lighting, heating, or for any other purpose:

(e.) To carry on and engage in a general logging and lumbering business and works incidental thereto, and to use and employ, in connection with its operations and works, donkey-engines and other plant, machinery, and mechanical appliances operated by steam and electricity or other motive power:

(f.) To obtain options over and take or acquire by purchase, lease, grant, licence, exchange, or otherwise howsoever, and either to hold or with a view to resale, timber lands, timber licences, timber limits and leases, claims, berths, pulp licences or leases, resin licences, or any licences or permits relating to any product or by-product of the forest, concessions, booming-grounds, rights-of-way, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, and other easements, rights, privileges, and property whatsoever in any part of the world, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which may be required or be considered convenient for any purpose of the Company or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered desirable of acquisition by the Company; to acquire any rights in and remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise any real estate or leasehold property or any interest therein, with or without houses or other buildings and erections thereon, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(h.) To pay for any property acquired by the Company either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly by a mortgage or mortgages for the balance of the purchase-money, or by the issue of debentures for such purchase-money or any part thereof, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(j.) To enter into any contract of insurance permitted by law, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, to effect all such insurances in relation to any part of the Company's business and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient, and, if thought fit, to enter into any contract of inter-insurance, and to join or become a member of and to subscribe to any mutual insurance company or protective indemnity association having for its objects the reciprocal indemnity, protection, or insurance of the members thereof against loss or damage to their property:

(k.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act, 1924," and to acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every source whatsoever for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(l.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight, and telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(m.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, or corporation or municipality:

(n.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sand, gravel, granite, sandstone or limestone, or other substances or materials:

(o.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(p.) To improve, alter, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(q.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, grant options to purchase, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine.

(r.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(s.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments or obligations:

(t.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or take any interest in, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise:

(u.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any other contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(v.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the registration of this or the promotion of any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of any shares or securities thereof, or the guarantee of any debentures or other securities of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for any services rendered or agreed to be rendered in or about such registration or promotion or subscription of shares or guarantee of securities:

(w.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of, or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person having dealings with the Company in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(x.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership, or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint-purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company or person, and to become a member of any society, whether incorporated or not:

(y.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order or concession to others, or any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interest, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(z.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company or engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to make gifts to any person, firm, or corporation:

(aa.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(bb.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(cc.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(dd.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company.
